We present to you a report on the activities of the Empowering Children Foundation in 2024.

This is the 33rd year of our activity, the primary goal of which is to ensure children a childhood without violence. Most of the activities carried out in 2024 are a continuation and development in line with the main strategic areas of the Foundation – assistance, prevention, advocacy and mobilization.

Assistance is building an offer of specialist and interdisciplinary support for children affected by crime in the Child Advocacy Centres Network and remote assistance to children in difficult situations on our Helpline for Children and Youth 116 111.

This year, we focused on the territorial development of the Child Advocacy Centres Network, so that in various parts of Poland children affected by crime could count on professional help under one roof, as well as on increasing the answering rate of calls from children on both phone lines: Polish and Ukrainian.

Prevention is the prevention of child abuse through support and education of parents and people working with children, as well as by empowering children and young people themselves to avoid threats, including in cyberspace, and seek help. In 2024, we focused many of our activities on broad support for institutions and organizations that, in accordance with applicable law, have been required to implement child protection standards since August 2024.

Advocacy is identifying systemic and legal solutions that provide children with better protection from abuse, and seeking their introduction by decision-makers at various levels. In this area, too, we have put a lot of effort into preparing effective tools for implementing child protection standards, and we have also begun conceptual work on including Child Advocacy Centres in the public system and improving the coordination of activities of various institutions in the event of suspected child abuse. We try to base all our activities on research results and reliable diagnoses of needs.

Mobilization is engaging people, institutions, organizations and companies to join in the implementation of our mission – protecting children from violence. In 2024, we engaged over 7,000 different entities in the nationwide campaign “Childhood without violence”. I invite you to read the report, which briefly and statistically shows our activities in 2024. I hope that behind these numbers you will see the work of a wonderful team of almost two hundred employees, associates and volunteers of the Foundation, as well as the specific children we helped. At the same time, I want to thank thousands of people, institutions and organizations, without whose substantive, organizational and financial support we would not be able to help children!

Renata Szredzińska
President of The Empowering Children Foundation

We have been protecting children from violence and sexual abuse for over 30 years. We provide children and their caregivers with support, professional psychological and legal assistance and care. We teach adults how to react wisely and effectively to violence against children and what to do when they suspect that a child is abused. We support and engage parents to raise their children with love and respect. We influence Polish law to best protect the best interests of the child. We believe in violence-free childhood!

Help

Experiencing or witnessing abuse may have a negative impact on the development and physical, emotional and social functioning of a child, but it also may affect the child's later life. The research shows that people who experience abuse or sexual abuse are many times more likely to attempt suicide or other self-destructive behaviour. Thanks to various forms of direct help – psychological, psychotherapeutic, psychiatric and legal consultations, we provide children and their non-abusing parents with effective help to reduce the consequences of traumatic experiences.

Our support also applies to situations where a child has experienced abuse through electronic media (internet, phone, etc.).

Moreover, if children and young people experience any difficulties and threats or feel the need to talk, they can contact our Helpline for Children and Youth 116 111, which operates 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.

CHILD
ADVOCACY CENTRES

Child Advocacy Centres Network

Since 2018 we have been coordinating activities of ten Child Advocacy Centres, operating on the basis of the Barnahus model. This model assumes that children victims of crime, mainly of sexual abuse and violence, and their caregivers receive specialist, interdisciplinary help under one roof. Child Advocacy Centres implement common standards, and their basic value is the welfare of the child. They offer a space for a child-friendly interview for the children participating in criminal procedures, as well as medical, psychological, psychiatric and legal assistance. The interdisciplinary team of the facility works in cooperation with local services. At the moment our Foundation runs three CAC – in Gdańsk, Starogard Gdański and Warsaw. The further seven Child Advocacy Centres are run by partner organizations: the Szansa Association for Children and Youth in Głogów, the Klanza Association in Białystok, the Sempre a Frente Foundation in Lublin, the Moc Wsparcia Association in Sosnowiec, the NON LICET Foundation in Wrocław, the Child in the Centre Foundation in Poznań, and the Słonie na Balkonie Foundation in Łódź.

Actions implemented in 2024:

- ➡ in November 2024, the Child in the Centre Foundation officially launched the Child Advocacy Centre in Poznań;
- ➡ at the end of 2024, a pilot version of the tool for monitoring the implementation of standards in Child Advocacy Centres operating within the CAC Network was also created.

Helpline Programme

116 111 – helpline for children and young people
800 100 100 – helpline for parents and teachers
on keeping children safe

In 2024, a sad record was broken in the number of interventions undertaken to save the health or lives of children – we conducted 1,010 interventions (1,034 in total for UA and PL). Over 40% of contacts from children concerned mental health, and almost 30% – peer relations. Since May 2024, the Helpline for Children and Youth 116 111 in Polish, has been financed from the state budget for the first time in history. As part of a project commissioned by the Ministry of Health, we opened a Support Centre for children and young people in emotional crisis, where, in addition to the previous 24-hour on-call duty, we have launched specialist on-call duties (e.g. psychiatrist, lawyer, sexologist) for children and young people. Specialist on-call duties are educational in nature and are available within a more reduced range of hours than the psychological on-call duties.

Goals:

to help children and young people in need of support, care and protection, to help parents and teachers who need support and information on prevention and helping children in trouble and difficulties.

Main activities:

Helpline Program – ad hoc individual help for children and young people in need of support, help for parents and teachers who need support and information on how to help children experiencing problems and difficulties. Telephone and online support for children and young people in difficult situations, telephone and online consultations for parents and teachers on children's safety; educational and promotional activities encouraging people to seek help in difficult situations and to use the telephone assistance offer.

Actions implemented in 2024:

- ➡ service of the free helpline 116 111 – working 7 days a week, 24 hours a day;
- ➡ handling chat conversations on 116 111 – open 7 days a week, Monday to Friday, from 14:00 to 24:00;
- ➡ service of the free helpline 800 100 100 – working from Monday to Friday, 12.00–15.00;
- ➡ opening of the free helpline 116 111 in Ukrainian and Russian – working 7 days a week, from Monday to Friday from 14:00 to 24:00;
- ➡ running the website www.centrumwsparciadladzieci.pl, www.116111.pl; www.800100100.pl;
- ➡ providing online counseling for parents and professionals regarding child safety.
- ➡ psychoeducational activities addressed to children on social media on the 116 111 profile on Instagram and on Tik Tok;
- ➡ 116 111 podcast in the Trójka radio station.

Prevention

The activities aiming at preventing child abuse are of a great importance for us. We educate parents and provide them with psychotherapeutic help to raise children without violence. We support families and professionals in the safe use of new technologies. Our offer is also available to organizations and institutions that want to comprehensively take care of the safety of their charges: nurseries, kindergartens, schools, non-governmental organizations, sports clubs. We support them in implementing child protection standards, jointly making these places safer for children. We also educate society so that it can react appropriately in situations where there is a suspicion that a child may be experiencing abuse. We also run an educational platform where we collect all educational materials prepared by the Foundation and share them with users free of charge.

Re-granting program

After the start of a full-scale war in Ukraine, we not only tried to organize help in our centres, but also to support other non-governmental organizations and institutions in helping people from Ukraine. In 2024 we also continued these activities, they were implemented in the following towns and cities: Rzeszów, Lublin Poznań, Białystok, Olsztyn, Sosnowiec, Wrocław, Głogów.

Advocacy, research and expertise

We research current trends in the area of child abuse, we use research results to set the Foundation's strategic goals. We evaluate and constantly try to improve our activities. We carefully observe legal changes in the field of child protection. We propose a proven solution to better protect children from abuse and we work with various entities to implement them. On the basis of research results, experience in direct help and legal analyses, we develop expert opinions, which we share with decision-makers at various levels of Polish administration.

“Abused Child” Quarterly

“Abused Child. Theory, Research, Practice” is a periodical published by the Empowering Children Foundation. The journal is interdisciplinary. Its aim is to broaden the knowledge of professionals – psychologists, educators, doctors, lawyers, social politicians and others – about various aspects of the problem of child abuse. The “Abused Child” cooperates with international journals focusing on the child abuse problematics – “Child Abuse & Neglect” and “Child Maltreatment”.

In 2024, four issues of the journal were published:

- ➡ Quarterly: Vol 22, No 1 (2024): Therapeutic work in the context of child abuse;
- ➡ Quarterly: Vol 22, No 2 (2024): The situation of children with migration and refugee experience in Poland;
- ➡ Quarterly: Vol 22, No 3 (2024): Legal protection of the child;
- ➡ Quarterly: Vol 22, No 4 (2024): Ethical aspects of conducting research involving children.

Social mobilisation

We know that a lot can be achieved when people have a common goal and actively participate in both identifying needs and being part of the solution. We want everyone to be able to support us in our mission to protect children from violence. We develop awareness among adults on the violence against children and the risks associated with it. So that everyone can react to violence against children and share this knowledge with others. Our activities are possible thanks to the support of citizens: one-time donations, monthly payments, 1.5% PBO and collections. We also encourage companies to implement the principle of corporate social responsibility in cooperation with our Foundation.

PR department

not only building a coherent image of the Empowering Children Foundation, but above all, reaching out to opinion leaders and a wide range of recipients in society in order to educate, build awareness and sensitize about the problem of child abuse in Poland and methods of preventing it. These activities take place throughout the year in multiple channels, through media relations, social media, the website, as well as outdoor activities and non-standard channels.

Main activities:

in addition to media relations, social media and the website, the PR department supports the Foundation by creating branding and promotional materials, harmonizing visual identification, patronage, supporting grant and business partnerships, as well as organizing events, among others the Alina Magrolis-Edelman Gala Reception. On a daily basis, the team also presents legal and psychological issues which are key to improving the situation of children in Poland and to implementing a change in the society, in a simple and understandable way.
